This poem and a Kubic Kid illustration won for little Agnes Skinner a handsome pair of Educator Shoes. Suppose you try your luck this week AND WIN A PRIZE.

The Educator Shoe, you must admit,
Is shaped just right and bound to fit;
Your feet though wide or fat or thin
Will find there's lots of room within;
And when they're worn a month or two
They will not rip as others do.

In Addition to The Times' Prizes
This Week, We Offer
the Children

Comfy Footwear for Growing Feet

Scientifically designed and built—roomy and comfortable, to allow ample freedom for the growth of tiny feet.

You older folks who have undergone the punishment of painful feet caused by wearing pinchy, pointed shoes when you were young—we ask you not to let YOUR children make the same mistake.
